

The Limes Award rules

This award is issued by the local branch F11, Bad Homburg, Germany of the DARC (German Amateur Radio Club). It has been recognized as official by the DARC on June 15th, 2010. Applicants may be licensed Amateurs or SWLs.

All contacts must be made on or after January 1st, 2010.

Each band and mode except packet radio is allowed.

Only contacts with stations located at the historical Roman Limes are valid.

These stations are identified by its DOK (local area code). Typically a DOK is a three character identification using a letter and 2 digits. The first letter indicates the district, the two digits are the number of the local area. Thus, F11, for example, is located in the district F (i.e. Hessen) and 11 is the number of the local club branch.

The list of all valid DOK and districts A, B, F, K, P, T, U (Z is not a district) for the Limes Award:
